

To: Community Sports Department

Leading Edge Gymnastics – Washington State Championships for Levels 7, 8, & 9
March 30th through April 1st, 2007

First Place Team Trophies brought home by the levels 8 & 9 and Second Place by the level 7 team.

Our First Place State Champions are: Jordan Widener, Samantha Jensen, Carah Solemsaas, Jeia Villacis, and Kailie Ponto

Level 7 Team results - In the 12 yrs B division, Jordan Widener of Snohomish finished first (38.425). In the 12 yrs A division Jeia Villacis of Everett came in first (38.025), Kendall Shelford of Snohomish third (37.800), and Casie Charawell of Bothell came in fourth (37.575). Michelle Ruiz of Everett placed second (37.775) in the 13 yrs division.

Level 8 Team results - In the Jr A division, Carah Solemsaas of Lake Stevens took first all-around (38.275) and Makayla Betz of Sultan seventeenth (35.250). In the Jr B division Madison Podlucky of Redmond finishing third (37.850), Lily Gaffney of Snohomish (37.825) finished fourth. In the Sr B division, Samantha Jensen of Lake Stevens finished first (38.350) with her best performance this year.

Level 9 Team results – In the Junior B division Kailie Ponto of Kenmore placed first (37.875), Jessica Buehler of Snohomish second (37.600), Kelsey Morris of Snohomish third (37.400), Laura Horne of Kirkland fourth (37.225) and Lauren Bath of Everett came in seventh (36.825). Leslie Archer of Lynnwood placed second (36.650) and Alexa Archer of Lynnwood took fifth (36.500) in the Sr B division.

Washington State Level 8 Team

Congratulations to the girls who have qualified to the level 8 state team! The top 8 level 8 gymnast from the state championships, regardless of age, have been selected to the Washington State Team. These gymnasts will be competing at the regional competition in Yakima, WA in 3 weeks. They will be representing Washington in a competition against all of the other states in the region (Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Hawaii and Oregon). Good Luck to the girls! Go WASHINGTON

Level 8 State Team: Samantha Jensen (LEGA-S), Carah Solemsaas (LEGA-S), Ashley Perkovich (AUBURN), Cheyenne Gavino (METRO), Jennifer Fouch (METRO), Olivia Goree (GYM EAST), Madison Podlucky (LEGA-S) and Lily Gaffney (LEGA-S). Alternates Emily Lopez (GYM EAST) and Briana McKenney (AUBURN).